

APPENDIX 5 – Practicum Rules – FDRP Program

The Graduate Diploma of Family Dispute Resolution Practice or Master of Laws (Applied Law) majoring in Family Dispute Resolution Practice entitles graduates to apply to the Commonwealth Attorney General’s Department to become accredited as family dispute resolution practitioners.

The Program consists of two components:

- (i) The Coursework Component and
- (ii) The Practicum Component.

Students who commence the Graduate Diploma of Family Dispute Resolution Practice or Master of Laws (Applied Law) with a major in Family Dispute Resolution Practice from 2021, will be able to complete both of the components by successfully completing 5 core subjects:

- FDR1 – Family Law & Mediation;
- FDR2 – Children’s Matters, Family Law and Family Dispute Resolution;
- FDR3 – Advanced Family Dispute Resolution;
- FDR4 – Case Management in Family Dispute Resolution Capstone; and
- FDR5 – Virtual Simulated Practice.

However, students are able to seek recognition of prior learning for FDR5 – Virtual Simulated Practice in the event that they are able to source and complete 20 hours of practicum externally.

Below Practicum Rules apply to students who:

1. Commenced prior to 2021 and elected not to complete FDR5 – Virtual Simulated Practice subject as an optional/elective subject; or
2. Students who commenced from 2021 and elected to seek a recognition of prior learning for FDR5 – Virtual Simulated Practice and complete 20 hours of practicum externally.

These rules relate to the Practicum Component.
