

2018 New Lawyers Summit

10 – 11 August 2018
The College of Law,
Sydney CBD

Building the foundations for success.

The beginning of your legal career is a pivotal time. The skills you develop early will lay the foundation for your future.

Set yourself up for success by attending the 2018 New Lawyers Summit. You will learn the essential skills to thrive in legal practice, while gaining the tools required for a sustainable career.

Why ALL new lawyers should attend?

- Learn essential courtroom advocacy skills and etiquette from The Hon Justice Derek Price AM, Chief Judge, District Court NSW
- Gain insights from Claire Bibby, 2016 & 2017 Australian In-House Lawyer of the Year, 2017 Mentor of the Year
- Hear the personal experiences of a successful mentor relationship
- Hear the ingredients you need for a sustainable career
- Plan your career development - what could be next?
- Gain vital legal document drafting skills with a two hour practical workshop
- Expand your network and make new connections
- Grow confidence in your legal and interpersonal skills
- Earn 7 CPD units by attending

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

If you are in your first years of legal practice and want to gain an edge, the New Lawyers Summit is for you!

PRICING

Member price: $189.00 incl GST
Non Member price: : $210.0 incl GST

Register online today at
collaw.edu.au/NEWLAWYER

 Professional Development
The College of Law

Summit agenda

FRIDAY 10 AUGUST 2018

4pm – 5pm: Keynote Address: The value and benefits of career mentors

Claire Bibby, Non-Executive Director, Marist180, Australian Property Circles & UTS Law School Advisory Board

Loren Blumgart, Legal Counsel, Brookfield Properties Australia

Claire and Loren will share the story of their own mentoring relationship including:

- The benefits of mentoring and sponsorship
- Identifying the qualities to look for in your ideal mentor
- How to find and establish a relationship with a mentor
- How to effectively maintain your mentor, mentee relationship

5pm – 6pm: Panel discussion 'The Legal Journey'

Arthur Moses SC, President NSW Bar Association

Tim Perry, Head of Corporate, Practical Law Australia, Thompson Reuters

Aaron LePoidevin, Partner, PwC Australia

Andrea Christie-David, Partner & COO – Humanitarian Law, Salvos Legal

This interactive panel discussion will showcase the personal experiences and career development of four prominent practitioners working both within and outside of traditional practice. Offering insights on growth and development, practising at the Bar, and how to utilise your legal skills to get ahead, this insightful discussion is not to be missed.

6pm – 7pm: Networking drinks and canapés

Enjoy networking drinks, canapés and complimentary headshots for your LinkedIn profile.

SATURDAY 11 AUGUST 2018

9am – 10am: Keynote address: Essential courtroom etiquette and advocacy

The Honourable Justice Derek Price AM, Chief Judge, District Court NSW

- Hear unparalleled insights from the Bench
- Learn the courtroom rules, and procedural laws you need to know
- How to succeed when appearing before the court
- Why exceptional advocacy skills are essential

10am – 10.15am: Morning tea

10.15am – 11.15am: The essential ingredients for a sustainable legal career

Martine Barclay, Managing Director, Redefine Your Edge

- Redefine success – what does success mean to you?
- Know how to set and maintain personal and professional boundaries
- Understand the importance of being disciplined and maintaining priorities, particularly in relation to sleep, energy management and stress

11.15am – 12.15pm: How to effectively work the room

Fiona Craig, Founder Smart Women Connect, Speaker, Trainer, Mentor, Coach

Networking is an essential tool to build your personal brand and create career opportunities.

You've probably worked with people or been to events where you see people who just seem to ooze confidence when it comes to interacting with others.

But what if you don't feel confident about "working the room"?

- How do you start up a conversation with a stranger?
- How do you promote yourself without that 'pushy' vibe?
- How do you build a network that will help you succeed even more in your career?

Join us for this session with our guest speaker, Fiona Craig, Founder of SmartWomen Connect, an Executive and Career Coach who is passionate about helping lawyers build stronger networks and fulfilling careers.

12.15pm – 12.45pm: Networking Lunch

12.45pm – 2.45pm: Practical Workshop: The fundamental skills for drafting legal documents

- Know the critical elements of drafting legal documents
- Learn how to apply language to legal documentation
- Learn about clause and document structure
- Draft clauses and structure a document

Program Close

Want to register offline?

Call Client Services on 1300 506 402 for assistance or to register over the phone.

Register online today at
collaw.edu.au/NEWLAWYER

 Professional Development
The College of Law